

Date: _____

Sir,

SUPPLIER PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION DECLARATION

I, _____, NRIC No: _____, acting as an authorised representative of _____ (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”), in registering as a vendor of FGV Group of Companies

(“FGV”) or participating in FGV’s tender or quotation process, do solemnly and sincerely declare the following:

1. Ethical Commitment

I and any individual acting on behalf of the Company shall:

- a. Provide accurate and up-to-date personal data and ensure consent has been obtained from all data subjects whose data is shared with FGV;
- b. Allow FGV to collect and process categories of personal data including name, NRIC/passport, company details, financial and banking information, professional background, and other information necessary for due diligence, evaluation, contract execution and compliance;
- c. Consent to FGV’s disclosure of personal data to subsidiaries, regulators, auditors, consultants, technology vendors, and service providers, including across borders, subject to adequate safeguards under the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 (PDPA) and its 2024 amendments;
- d. Retain confidentiality of personal data and use it only for legitimate business purposes;
- e. Implement security measures to prevent unauthorised access, misuse, disclosure, or loss of personal data; and
- f. Recognise that FGV may retain data only as long as required by law or legitimate business needs.

2. Consequences of Non-Compliance

If I, or any representative of the Company, breach Clause 1, I acknowledge that FGV may:

- a. Deregister the organisation from FGV’s vendor database;
- b. Terminate or revoke tenders, quotations, Letters of Award, Purchase Orders, or contracts;
- c. Blacklist the organisation, its owners or representatives from current and future dealings; and
- d. Take other enforcement actions deemed appropriate.

3. Legal Awareness

I acknowledge that failure to comply with PDPA 2010 and its amendments may result in enforcement action, fines, or prosecution. I further acknowledge that data subjects (employees, officers, directors, shareholders, or representatives) have rights to access, correct, and withdraw consent regarding their personal data. FGV's Data Protection Officer (DPO) may be contacted for such requests at dpo.fgvhb@fgvholdings.com.

4. Obligation to Report

The Company undertakes to immediately report to FGV any actual or suspected personal data breach, unauthorised disclosure, or regulatory investigation relating to personal data provided to or obtained from FGV.

5. Corporate Liability

The Company is responsible for ensuring compliance with PDPA obligations by all associated persons. If any associated person misuses personal data to obtain business or advantage, the organisation may be held liable and subjected to penalties.

6. Cooperation and Good Faith

The Company shall:

- a. Cooperate with FGV in any investigation, audit, or compliance review;
- b. Provide timely updates on changes to data protection practices;
- c. Recognise that FGV may update its Privacy Statement and this declaration from time to time; and
- d. Respect the retention limits of personal data, with disposal in line with PDPA requirements.

7. Consent & Acknowledgement

By signing below, I confirm that I have read, understood, and consented to this Supplier Personal Data Protection Declaration. I acknowledge that FGV may process, disclose, and transfer personal data in accordance with PDPA and for the purposes stated herein.

Yours sincerely,

Name:

NRIC No.:

Designation:

Date: